New Paint, Awnings and Repairs Restoring Center to Its Old Luster

by Virginia Beauchamp

An effort to return the Roosevelt Center in old Greenbelt to its approximate appearance in 1937 is now well underway. Gleaming white exteriors, long subdued as red brick and almost invisible from Crescent Road, now shine in the sun. Other less visible but no less necessary changes, such as the repair of leaking roofs and replacement of windows, are also being carried out.

Nevertheless, our founding fathers and mothers might be perplexed by references in the contract under which the current changes are specified; for in two cases the descriptive model of what should be striven for is the Domino's Pizza Shop. Were there pizza shops in 1937? Certainly not in Greenbelt, and certainly not with fast delivery service. Most people then expected to walk to fill out their grocery lists; and the building in question was at that time home for the Greenbelt police and fire department.

When completed, the commercial buildings will be white with a gray lower section, as currently appears in the pizza shop. Gutters, downspouts, window and door frames and other trim will be dark green, as they were painted in 1937.

Awnings

New awnings will be installed that will appear similar to those when the buildings were new. But in keeping with modern times, the material will be vinyl, which is said to resemble fabric from a distance. These will be hung somewhat higher than the original awnings, with a steeper slope. They will be fixed, not retractable like the originals.

According to Celia Wilson, the city's Director of Planning, the color for the awnings is expected to be close to the dark green of the trim paint. They will project out from the walls about four feet and will end with a 14-inch scallop. Painted in white on this scallop over each of the doors will be the names of the individual businesses. Although uniform in color, the lettering styles of the signs may vary, as standardized by the parent companies, such as Sovran and Mellon banks and High's. Hidden lighting will illuminate the signs.

Contract Agreement

The contract between the owners of the buildings in the Center, George and Lisa Christacos, and the city of Greenbelt was signed on April 11. In return for the city's support for a Departure from Parking and Loading Standards (DPLS) pending before the Planning Board for Prince Georges County, the owners agreed to make certain repairs and improvements to the Center buildings. Christacos hopes to gain approval for construction of a new shop to replace the basement shoe repair facility below the theater, filling in the corner at the east end of the shopping center.

According to county guidelines, such a new commercial building would need to be supported by six new parking spaces—an obvious impossibility in the Roosevelt Center's limited area. Since the projected new shop would replace one already in use, which would then be abandoned, the city does not foresee additional pressures of any significance on the existing provisions for parking.

Currently the DPLS, which was approved by the Planning Board, is in a 30-day appeal period, after which it will be presented to the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission (M-NOPPC).

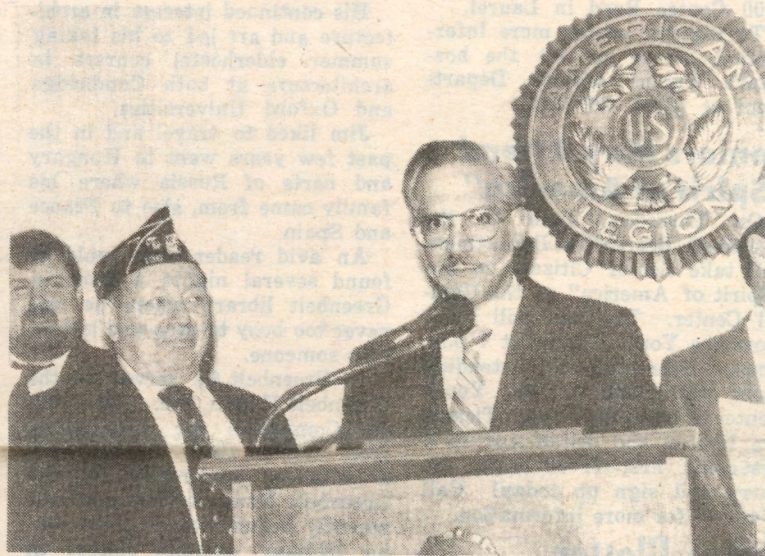

As part of the process of preparing the contract between Christacos and the city, operators of the various businesses were asked to list whatever problems they had noted with the physical facilities. City attorney Robert Manzi and Christacos then went through the list, designating which of these problems were tenant responsibilities and which were those of the owner.

One larger area of concern to the city, as well as to some of the tenants, involves the loading platforms behind High's and the Greenbelt Carryout. Recently, without input from the city, Christacos enclosed an area of the loading dock behind the restaurant, apparently to replace storage space lost when the new tailor shop took over the small room between the Sovran Bank and the Carryout. The city has asked the firm of consulting engineers to study the general area of the loading docks and to make recommendations concerning access for deliveries and trash removal and possible screening.

Legion Honors Outstanding Police Officer and Fireman

by S. R. Cherry

On May 10 the Greenbelt American Legion Post 136 honored an outstanding policeman and an outstanding fire fighter during their annual Policeman and Fireman Awards Ceremony and Banquet. The Legion recognizes the contributions and sacrifices of the Greenbelt Police Department and the Greenbelt Fire Department & Rescue Squad and for the fifth year sponsored the event with the cooperation of the city of Greenbelt. This year's event chairman was Richard J. Santos.

Bob Pergola responds to having been chosen Greenbelt Fire Fighter of the Year by Greenbelt American Legion Post 136. Pergola has given 26 years of service as a volunteer fireman. Presenting the award is Sam Hoffberg (left), Post Commander. Edward Hughes, President of the Greenbelt Fire Department, looks on.

The evening's first award, for 1991 Fireman of the Year, was awarded to Bob Pergola. He was honored for his personal dedication and service to the Fire Department on his 26 years of service. Pergola has shown a level of commitment which ranges from running calls, fixing broken apparatus, and taking night duty when needed, to helping with fund raising. President Ed Hughes cited: "The dedication with which he approaches his membership in the Department epitomizes the spirit of volunteerism."

Thanking the Legion for the Certificate of Commendation Pergola said, "That's what volunteering is about."

Policeman of the Year

Pfc. Carl H. Schinner is the police officer selected as Officer of the Year. The Ashton, Maryland resident was honored for his outstanding performance as a patrol officer. In 1990 Schinner made 124 criminal arrests ranging from attempted murder to failure to pay a fine. He has also been very active in illicit narcotics investigations and the service of search and seizure warrants for such offenses. Chief of Police James R. Craze noted,

"Carl exemplifies the qualities we all would like to see in a police officer. On top of that, he is a genuinely decent person and someone truly deserving of the honor of being named Officer of the Year."

Upon receiving the award Schinner first thanked his wife, Pam, and commented that, "Part of it is the department . . . we stick together." Schinner is a four-year veteran of the force and has two children.

Greenbelt Mayor Gil Weidenfeld presented proclamations to both Pergola and Schinner for, "Exemplifying those qualities we most like to see." He also thanked Cmdr. Sam Hoffberg for recognizing the policemen and firemen.

Chairman of the Prince Georges County Council Richard Castaldi also presented a proclamation to the honorees. Council member Castaldi noted his experiences of growing up in Greenbelt.

Representing State Senator Leo Green, who was unable to attend, Greenbelt City Council member Thomas White read resolutions sponsored by Green in the Maryland Senate in honor of Pergola and Schinner.

Greenbelt Flag Day

Celebrate Flag Day on June 14! At 7 p.m. the President will lead the Nation in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. Join the rest of the nation in saluting the birthday of the Pledge. At 8:15 to 10 p.m. the Greenbelt Municipal Pool will be open and hosting a Family Fun Swim. The festivities begin at 8:15 p.m. and the cost is free to all those wearing red, white or blue ($1 for all others). Games, entertainment and refreshments will be available.

For more information contact the Greenbelt Recreation Department at 474-6878.

James E. Simon

James E. (Jim) Simon, 68, of 45 Court Ridge Rd., died at his home on Friday, May 31. He had been a resident of Greenbelt since 1977, living first on Hillside Rd. before moving to Ridge Rd. Born in McKeesport, Pa., Jim's first job there at age 16 was as a portrait photographer.

In 1944 he joined the Army and served in the South Pacific as a x-ray technician (a job he was given because of his background in photography).

After the war Jim earned a B.A. at Antioch College. He worked for AID, Africa Bureau; Public Health Services; and the Bureau of Yards and Docks. In 1979 he retired from the National Park Service where he worked in the personnel office.

After his retirement he worked for Bara-King Photography in Chevy Chase, using his ability to speak Hungarian with clients. Several other part-time jobs included working at Radio Shack in the Greenway Center and Discount Record and Tapes where he joked he was the "stereo expert."

Jim's hobbies included cooking. In fact, his friends considered him to be a gourmet cook.

His continued interest in architecture and art led to his taking summer elderhostel courses in architecture at both Cambridge and Oxford Universities.

Jim liked to travel and in the past few years went to Hungary and parts of Russia where his family came from, also to France and Spain.

An avid reader, Jim could be found several nights a week in Greenbelt library where he was never too busy to stop and talk or help someone.

In Greenbelt he served on the Greenbelt Homes, Inc. (GHI) Audit Committee for two terms, from 1978 to 1980. He had been a volunteer proofreader for the Greenbelt News Review and had recently begun attending the senior citizens' exercise classes at the Youth Center.

His marriage to Nancy Whittemore Simon ended in divorce.

Survivors include his daughter Margaret, of the District of Columbia; Andrew Herbert, Fishkill, N.Y., and brothers Albert, Greensburg, Pa., and John of McKeesport.

A memorial service will be held on Monday, June 17 at 1 p.m., at Cedar Lane Unitarian Church, 9601 Cedar Lane, Bethesda.

The family requests that expressions of sympathy be made to the charity of one's choice.

Need Bottle Bill

To the Editor:

I moved to Maryland from Michigan a little over a year ago. I have noticed that the parks and roadways are much cleaner in Michigan than in Maryland because Michigan has a returnable beverage container law. Ten cents is deposited on every beer or soft drink can or bottle and this is refunded when the container is returned to the store. I believe that Maryland could benefit from such a law. It would aid our recycling efforts and result in a cleaner Maryland.

It is quite unfortunate that a small number of inconsiderate slobos think so little about the rest of us that they feel no remorse about dropping their rubbish wherever they please. A returnable beverage law would motivate those people, and others, that don't deposit their used cans in the recycling bins, to modify their behavior.

Planning Ahead.

Life today is so fast paced, sometimes it's difficult to find enough time to plan everything out in advance. That's why we've prepared a special booklet entitled, "Planning Ahead," covering such important subjects as the advantages of planning ahead, the importance of a will, and the purpose of a funeral. There are even sections to organize personal biographical, financial and legal information for your family.

If you would like a complimentary copy of "Planning Ahead," please contact our funeral home or simply return the coupon below.

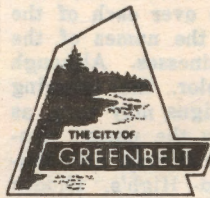

Please send me your free planning guide entitled, "PLANNING AHEAD."

Boys & Girls Club Baseball

by Jeff Keir

The "Boys of Summer" are fulfilling their dreams of playing ball this Summer. The Greenbelt Boys & Girls Club's 14 & under Boys Baseball team has begun its fourth week of the season, and the Club's 15 & under Boys Baseball team has just begun its season this week.

The 14 and under team, with a 3-2 record as of May 23, are playing well. Their bats have become hot and their pitching solid. The week of May 21, provided two lopsided victories against Clinton and Kent teams. The team is looking forward to providing some exciting baseball to the home fans. The next home game will be Friday, June 7, at Braden Field starting at 6:15 p.m.

The 15 & under team began play May 28 against Oxon Hill. There are six teams in their league: Oxon Hill, District Heights, Landover Hills, Cheverly, and Marlboro. They will play Cheverly on Thursday, June 6 at 6:15 p.m. at the County's B&G Club Sports Park. They will play three home games at Braden Field: Monday, June 24 vs. Marlboro; Friday, June 28 vs. Oxon Hill; and Monday, July 8 vs. Cheverly — all starting at 6:15 p.m. The 15 & under team season continues until July 12. The team has five returning players from last year's 15 & under team: Jason Burt, Ricky Cato, Sean Flemming, Greg Humanian and Man Nguyen. The team has a total roster of 16 players. The 15 & under team is looking to do some damage in the league this year. Come out and support this team too!

For further information regarding the Greenbelt Boys & Girls Club, call the Club's Sports Information Line: (202) 310-1066 (24 hrs.).

LAFfers Plan To Study Stars

The LAFfers (Leisure Activities for Fun and Friendship club) a group of differently-abled adults, will picnic on the grass, look for planets with the help of telescopes, and search the sky for surprises on Saturday, June 15 at the Patuxent River Park. The trip will begin at 6 p.m. at the Youth Center.

For further information about participation, call Karen or Patti at 474-6878.

Recreation Review

The National Concert Band of America will perform Sunday, June 9, 7 p.m. at the "Buddy" Attick Park. Everyone is invited to enjoy an evening of music.

Gray Panthers Will Hold Annual Picnic

The annual picnic of the Gray Panthers of Prince Georges County will be held on Tuesday, June 18 at Buddy Attick Park from noon until four p.m. at its usual place. Those planning to attend are asked to bring a covered dish. Lemonade will be supplied.

In line with the effort to practice good ecological habits, members are requested to bring their own place settings and cups.

This will be the last meeting until September.

Bring a friend. If transportation is needed, call Tony Pisano at 474-7841.

ATTENTION
GHI MEMBERS

Pursuant to a motion passed by the membership at the 1991 Annual Meeting, the Board of Directors has established an ad hoc GHI Woodlands Committee which will:

"Research forest management issues and practices and recommend to the Board the best approach to preserving our woodlands for posterity and the enjoyment of the membership and general public, including the 'environmental easement' which was proposed at the 1991 Annual Meeting."

The Board of Directors is looking for members to serve on this important ad hoc committee. Interested members should write a letter stating their background, experience, or other qualifications, and the reasons they believe they should be appointed to the committee.

The Board will be addressing the size, composition, and charter of this new committee during its June 20 meeting at 8 PM.

Address your letter to: GHI Board of Directors, Hamilton Place, Greenbelt, MD 20770.

Letters must be received by the close of business on June 20.

At the Library

Thursday, June 13 Drop-In Storytime 11 a.m. ages 3-5.

Thursday, June 13 Tickly Toddle 10:15 a.m. 2 year olds and their parents. Registration is required.
